

Directorate of Green India Mission participated in 4th India International Science Festival at Lucknow jointly organized by Ministry of Science and Technology and Ministry of Earth Science during 5-8 October, 2018. About 10,000 saplings were distributed to the visitors during the festival.

